

FIRST WORLD SUMMIT OF COMMUNITY ARTS CENTERS AND NETWORKS
23-28 September, 2014, Veliko Tarnovo, Bulgaria

“ I BELIEVE” MANIFESTO

Elaborated by the participants in the World Summit in relation to the official Summit proceedings

I believe that it is possible to enlarge a global movement “Live Cultures for the re-enchantment of the world “ to represent our work in cultural community centers

I believe in creative freedom!

I believe that we will meet in the future and together we will maintain our cultural traditions for the future generations.

I believe in playful methodologies!

I believe that Culture should be part of the UN post 2015 agenda and also that the 1% culture budget line should be lobbied for on national level and also that a platform where professional knowhow can be shared across the world is needed.

I believe in love among all people, no matter how diverse!

I believe in action!

I believe we are the right people to do it!

I believe in the reenchantment of the world!

I believe in life!

I believe that distances decrease through networks like Cultura Viva. So countries that are far away from each other can become close neighborhoods!
